GOVERNMENT'S PROPOSED ORDER TO CONTINUE

17 The United States of America, by and through Daniel G. Bogden, United States Attorney, 18 Brian Pugh and Sarah E. Griswold, Assistant United States Attorneys, files this Proposed Order to 19 Continue and as grounds therefor state as follows:

20 On February 20, 2013, this Court held a hearing on defendant Marcianti's motion to 21 continue, or in the alternative, motion for severance and continuance of calendar call and trial
22 (Doc. 50). In support of the motion, defense counsel submitted a January 31, 2013, letter from the 23 doctor for defendant Marcianti's mother stating the defendant's mother has breast cancer and can 24 expect four to six months to live. (Doc. 50 Ex. A.) At the hearing defense counsel argued that 25 based on her mother's medical condition, Marcianti was not able to assist in her defense. Defense
26 counsel represented that Marcianti was working from her mother's bedside, that Marcianti's

1 mother has cancer, and that her mother is awaiting death. The court found that the defendant's
2 mother's situation could be distracting. In light of the facts presented, the court found that the
3 interest of justice would be served by allowing Marcianti to be with her mother in the coming
4 months. The government objected to a continuance and objected to severance from the trial date
5 with David Mark. The court granted the motion to sever and continued defendant Marcianti's trial
6 from March 11, 2013, to July 9, 2013.

7 On February 20, 2013, this Court entered a minute order memorializing its decision.
8 (Doc. 63.) The minute order did not address the Speedy Trial Act. Defense counsel submitted a 9 proposed order (Doc. 69), which the court signed on March 1, 2013 (Doc. 72). That order did not 10 set forth any facts to toll the Speedy Trial Act. Wherefore, the government submits the attached
11 proposed order to continue.

12 DATED this 7th day of March, 2013.

13 Respectfully submitted,

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

THERESA MARCIANTI,

Defendant.

CASE NO.: 2:11-cr-452-PMP-CWH

ORDER TO CONTINUE

FINDINGS OF FACT

Based on the pleadings and arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing therefore, the Court finds that:

1. Defendant Marcianti's mother has breast cancer. The doctor for defendant Marcianti's mother has stated that the defendant's mother can expect four to six months to live from January 31, 2013.

2. Defendant Marcianti is working from her mother's bedside and may distract defendant from assisting her attorney.

3. The interest of justice would be served by allowing defendant Marcianti to be with her mother in the coming months.
